press release

UKUUG Linux Developers' Conference

The UK UNIX User Group announces the date and venue for the UK Linux Developers' Conference.

Venue: George Watson's College, Edinburgh

Thursday 31st July (Tutorial)
Friday 1st August - Sunday 3rd August (Conference)

The Conference will start from about 11am on Friday and finish by around 3pm on Sunday. Internet access will be available. Preceding the Conference, Thursday 31st July will be a Tutorial Day.

The event moves about the UK from year to year: in 2001 it was held in Manchester, 2002 in Bristol and in 2003, Edinburgh.

The Conference website (<http://www.ukuug.org/events/linux2003/>) will be up-dated as further information becomes available. Proposals for Conference papers or discussions (BOFs) should be submitted through the website.

A small Exhibition will run alongside the Conference, and the UKUUG is seeking Sponsors and Exhibitors.

The event is open to all UKUUG members; non-members wishing to attend need to join.

See <http://www.ukuug.org/events/linux2003/> for more information.
